The Wildcat 1976

Pearl River Junior College
Poplarville, Mississippi

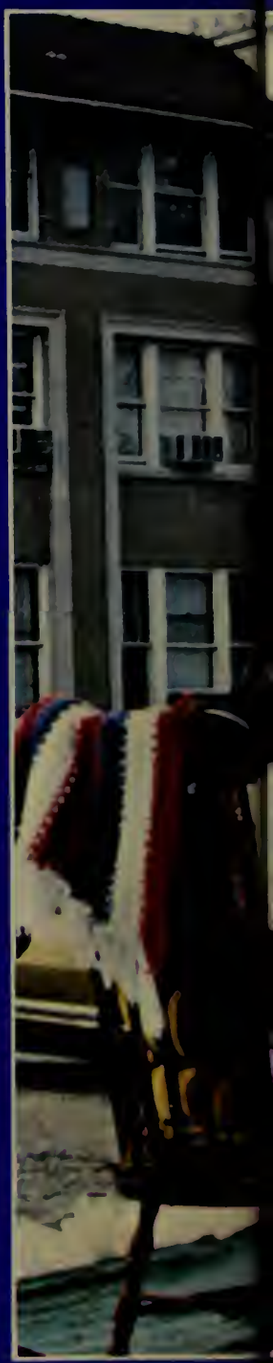
I used to be a rolling stone . . .

With our great nation currently celebrating its 200th year of existence, the Wildcat staff felt that a bicentennial theme for our '75-'76 edition would be most proper.

Last year, about this time, an English recording artist by the name of Elton John recorded a song called "Philadelphia Freedom", honoring the bicentennial year of the United States. We were very impressed by the lyrics in this tune which prompted us to use it in the first 32 pages of the 76 Wildcat.

"Philadelphia Freedom" was written by Elton John and Bernie Taupin and was copyrighted by Big Pig Music, Ltd., London, England, in 1974. The record, which sold in the millions, was released by MCA Records, Inc. of Universal City, Calfornia.

You know



If the cause was right . . .

I'd leave to find the answer

Pictures of the 1976 favorites were taken this year at the Jefferson Davis Shrine in Biloxi in honor of America's Bicentennial. Photographer Larry Stanford gambled on the weather against a pressing deadline, but amazingly the day turned out to be one of the few sunny and warm days of the month. The day was cut short because of a spring football scrimmage and a basketball game at Co-Lin. As usual, several of the favorites were football players and cheerleaders.

Chosen Mr. and Miss PRC were Ricky Cuevas of Lumberton and Patricia Robinson of Bay Saint Louis. Sophomore favorites included Catha Langley, Waveland; Sandy Sones, Sones Chapel; Judi Sinclair, Columbia; Sam Piazza, Bay Saint Louis; Tony Walker, Ville Platte, LA; and Randy Anderson of Purvis. Freshman favorites selected were Beth Delia, Hattiesburg; Kathy Milton, Bogalusa; Lynell Powell, Oak Grove; Mike Magee, Bay Saint Louis; James Fine; Bay Saint Louis, and Donnie Sorrells, Picayune.

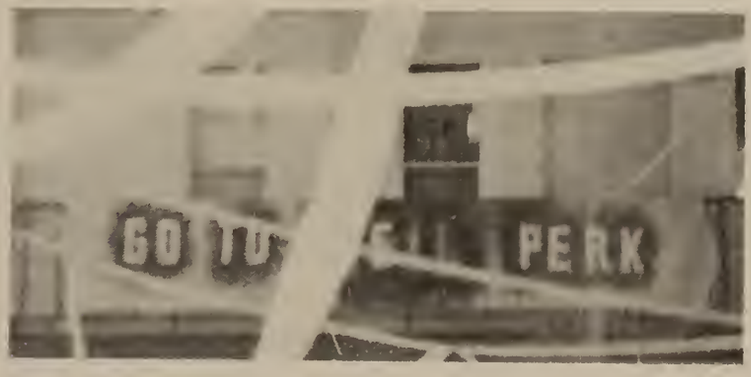
Perk Week . . .

Perk Week at PRC is special; special enough to have two annual pages devoted to the event. (Check Student Section.) No matter who you are: commuter, faculty member, dorm student or Poplarville resident, it's a time of the year that cannot go unnoticed. Pep rallies, water fights, and more pep rallies highlight the week. Parades downtown, "Go To Hell" Perk buttons are just common occurrences. Some things may be forgotten by River students in the years to come—but never Perk Week—just ask a PRC graduate.



Durenda Necaise selected queen

Part of the traditional activities of any homecoming is the selection and crowning of the homecoming queen, the nexus and symbol of the annual festivities. In the last few years, some colleges have broken with the precedents of decades by electing male students to this post of honor, instead of a pretty female, but at Pearl River the old values still hold true. Queen for the 1975 homecoming was Durenda Necaise, a pre-law major from Pass Christian. She was a sophomore representative on the student council and an avid sportswoman. She enjoys swimming, tennis, horseback riding and dancing. Durenda also was selected to model for Apple's LTD of Poplarville, and received Miss Dixie Drawl honors earlier in the year.

Scam Convention

Pearl River's student council had several firsts during the year. A female was elected president and the campus group hosted the state SCAM convention. Melissa Hall served as president and did a good job leading the other officers. 162 members turned out for the two-day state conference, with Miller Hammil acting as faculty sponsor. The council also took credit for many campus changes, such as dances, movie presentations, and active part in the administrative council.

Color Guard

The ROTC at Pearl River is in its fourth year at the school, since the course was cancelled way back in 1948. Since the army's return to campus there has been a new instructor for every year. Sometimes two. This school year, Major George Moffitt has served as the instructor. He has made many efforts to increase the club's enrollment and participation.

Probably the most active organization on campus is the local DECA chapter. They took several trips during the year and were active in campus activities. Many times they worked for the benefit of the community and school. D. R. Davis, a pint size instructor with loads of enthusiasm, led the group with hustle and desire to be the best in the state.

Wesley Foundation

The Wesley Foundation, an organization of Methodist students on campus, has been of great service to the community this year. At Halloween, the group "trick-or-treated" for Unicef. Visits to the Pearl River County Nursing Home also highlighted the year.

BSU

The Baptist Student Union is an interdenominational group of Christian students. Spiritual growth and development through religious and social activities is the aim of this organization.

VICA

VICA is one of the newest organizations on campus. In the last two years, under the direction of John Robinson and other vocational-technical instructors, the club has steadily grown in number and performance. Members participated in a number of local campus activities as well as intercollegiate events.

The 1975-76 cheerleaders were a very active energetic group. They supported the Cats all season with signs on top of signs, pep rallies, and numerous other little extras that add to any athletic department. Long trips, sleepless nights, sore and strained throats and pulled muscles were commonplace. The six girl group received many notes of praise throughout the season from students, players, and faculty alike.

Wildcat Band

What is a true River Spirit without the band. Ask the cheerleaders. Ask the football and basketball team. They will all tell you the hub of PRC's support is the marching Wildcat band under the student direction of Retta Curran and directed by Ray Patten. The marching maroon and gold group followed the Wildcat athletic events throughout the year, but they also marched in a host of community parades and did concerts for the local high schools within the PRC district and community.

"and now the famous String of Pearls—the pride of Cat Country". This was the intro for the 15 girl precision dance group that performed at all athletic events and other activities of the college. The group marched in no less than eight parades during the year and was a beautiful complement to the PRC band. Robin Moody served as choreographer for the group.

The Pearl Sisters

The Pearl Sisters were one of the most sought after groups in South Mississippi during the school year. Year before last the group began on their own, however this year, with George True directing and loads of new mikes and speakers to work with, the sextet began a determined effort to become the River's singing sensation—the school's own touring public relations group. And tour they did, from the Coast to the Capitol, as one news headline billed them. High schools, nursing homes and numerous civic clubs were on the weekly list of stops. Before the year was up an hour long concert was planned just for them. The only problem concerning the group was that the entire group were sophomores. Next year the sextet would have to start over. "There will be others," a college official said, "but it's doubtful there will ever be a group any better." Well said.

The Dixie Drawl, as in the last few years continued to put out what was termed by most as an excellent publication. In fact over the last four years the publication has won more than forty state and national awards and was named the state's best in 1974 and 1975. Results are not back on the progress made by the paper this year. In the years past the Drawl has been the pacesetters of all Mississippi's 17 junior college publications. Full size format, color pictures, dynamic artwork were just a few of the things done for the first time by the Drawl. This year was centered around two editorial staffs during the Spring's weekly publication issues. The new idea gave twice as many people the chance at working more on the publication. Several of the editors were putting their experience and training to use by working part time for commercial publications.

Wildcat Coaches and South All-Star Coaches

Those hot August days . . . optimism running high . . .

More than seventy Wildcat hopefuls reported for practice during the first week of two-a-day work-outs in the hot August sun. J.C. Arban was new as head coach, however, the year was beginning with a lot of optimism and a stable of talented athletes But a new offense and untried players at several positions presented a problem. After a couple of weeks of tough workouts, the school sponsored a giant cook-out for students, players, faculty and player's parents. Immediately following the Cats held their first real scrimmage of the year. The time had come—everything was set for the home-opening clash with East Central.

Thunderbird Field

Huge cookout kicks off season

East Central surprises cats in opener

Walker and Arban

PRC's hopes of J.C. Arban returning the Wildcats to the state and national spotlight was certainly spoiled in the opening game as the East Central Warriors dealt the Cats a 16-9 setback. Frank Woods scored from the one and Gary Miller kicked a 27 yard field goal, giving the home team a quick 9-0 lead. The Warriors cut that margin to 9-6 at half and really caught on fire in the third and final periods. East Central scored 10 points in that final stanza enroute to the win. Looking back a lot of fans say the Cats lost because of one long run, where they had gone to sleep in that last quarter. But at the time more supporters were pondering the question of just how good the Cats would be in 1975.

Season begins in second half at Miss. Delta

After thirty minutes of play the PRC fans still had no indication that the Cats would be a title contender. Mississippi Delta, one of the weaker north division teams had them 6-0 at half. However in the third quarter the River finally put it together. The season for the Wildcats had finally begun. Cavataio rambled for 7 and 32 yard scores early in the third quarter and Andy Robichaux added six more points in the fourth. PRC had broken the ice—they had found themselves—the River was ready for the remaining season.

Cavataio, Walker lead Cats over Jones

The Cats were alive, and the Jones Bobcats were the first to find out just how tough they would be the rest of the year. 26-6 was the score as the offense netted nearly 500 yards in total offense. Cavataio had another big night, picking up 121 yards and scoring on a 58 yard jaunt. Woods picked up 77 yards and scored two six-pointers. Tony Walker passed and ran for 207 yards and one touchdown. Co-Lin and Perk were next on the menu.

Hand will not stop.

Co-Lin next in line

The PRC-Co-Lin contest was tagged as the battle of the veers, and it also meant who would challenge Perk for the top spot in the South. Arbans veer, with quarterbacks Walker and Mike Magee running it to perfection, overwhelmed the Wolves, totaling 571 yards and 20-6 score. Walker ran for 97 and passed for 157, freshman Magee gained 61 and chunked for 112 more. Larry Harvey and Robert Hudson caught bombs for scores. Randy Anderson led the defensive unit. The scene was now set for the ultimate PRC-Perk clash.

PRC 29 – Perk 36: Enough Said

The Pearl River Wildcats played with their hearts on their sleeves October 11, but that was not enough as the nationally ranked Perkinston Bulldogs held off a last quarter PRC rally to win the annual showdown of the southern conference powers, 36-29.

Gulf Coast (Perk) took the game's opening kickoff, but after a series, could not move down field. Perk then took advantage of a costly Wildcat error. As the ball bounced around after landing, it brushed the leg of a Wildcat blocker; Perk covered, and took the first of many 'gifts' from the Cats.

Before things settled down Perk quarterback George Sekul had thrown on the first offensive play for a 23 yard touchdown. Henry Johnson missed the extra point as PRC spotted the Dogs six points.

After exchanging punts, Pearl River's offense finally got untracked and moved to the Perk 21 yard line, only to run out of downs.

The frustration of the past unsuccessful series only served to add fuel to the 'fire' power of PRC's veer offense on the next set of downs. The series covered 65 yards and ended with a slashing 23 yard run on a draw play by Frank Woods. Runs by Tony Walker and Rusty Cavataio set the stage for Woods score and as Randy Boyette hit true on the extra point the score stood 7-6.

Randy Anderson intercepted an errant Sekul pass at the midfield stripe, setting up the next score for the River. Rusty Cavataio followed the blocking of Charles Pigott, Ed Porter, Sam Piazza, and Larry Harvey to score from four yards out.

Randy Boyette was good for the extra point and the score stood 14-6 with 9:38 remaining in the half.

The half ended with the score unchanged and the Wildcats had manhandled the number two team in the country for an entire half.

The third quarter proved to be disastrous for the upset-minded Wildcats. Ironically, it started off with a good PRC drive into Perk territory, but typical of the period, ended as the offense ran out of juice at the 25 yard line.

Gulf Coast then took the ball 75 yards to paydirt for six points and faking the extra point, ran for two more, to knot the score at 14 apiece.

Walker, PRC quarterback, was knocked dizzy in the next series and Mike Magee entered the contest. The young freshman appeared to have the Cat's moving, with a 15 yard pass to Cavataio, but on the next play he tried to hit Leslie Hinson over the middle and suffered an interception. The culprit was Harold Coleman, who raced to a score from 46 yards away.

The Cats once again tried to pass to Hinson over the middle. This time it was Walker doing the passing, but the results were the same, an interception. Hinson, however, had little chance to catch the ball as he was blasted to the ground by a Perk defender before the ball arrived. The score stood 28-14 and some people filed out of the stadium.

Luckily for the Wildcats the third quarter ended, but the bad breaks didn't. Sam Piazza, set to punt at the 10, watched a snap from center go sailing over his head on PRC's next possession. The native of Bay St. Louis saw the pigskin bound into the end zone and sa a GC touchdown by knocking the ball out of bounds, giving the two points.

The Bulldog's ensuing possession, proved to be a fatal one fo the Wildcats, as Henry Ford 'wheeled' 45 yards to light up t final points of the night for Perk, 36-14.

And then the Wildcats proved they had character and start playing come-from-behind football. An eight play, 75 yard Riv drive was halted by an interception at the Perk goal line. Not be denied, Joey Wesley recovered a Gulf Coast fumble two pl later and the River was Rollin'. Mike Magee cooly dropped b in the pocket and forced a perfect scoring strike to Tim Heldt the score was 36-21. PRC tried an onsides kick. It failed, b Ricky Cuevas recovered a fumble on the very next play to s what was shaping up to be a story-book finish.

Pearl River couldn't move the ball from the GC 40 yard l and with 6:44 remaining Perk once again had the football. Ra Anderson, Joel Hemba, Marvin Davis and Steve Moody teamed to shut off the Perk offense and set up a punting situation. St Shepard and Donnie Sorrells got together for a blocked punt a recovery at the Gulf Coast 21 yard line, as it became obvious t those fans that had left early had made a mistake.

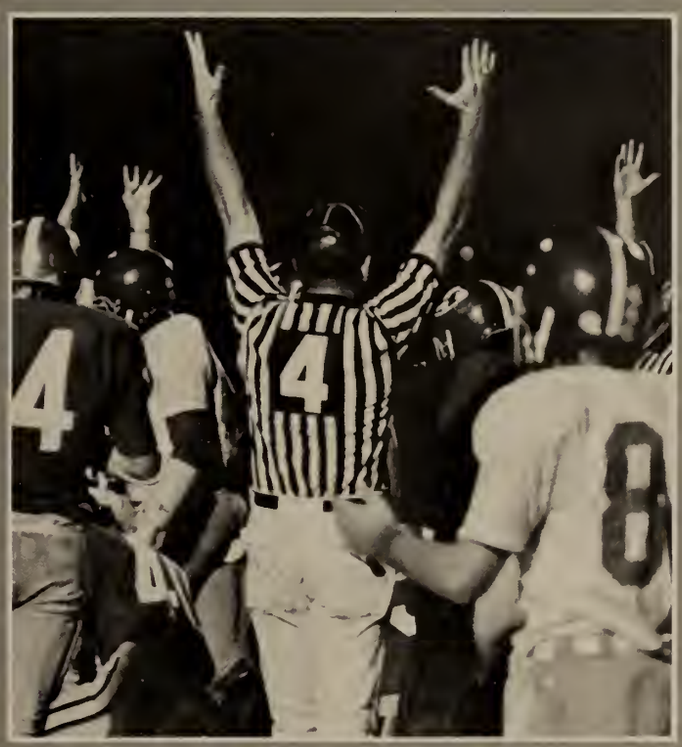
It was perfect timing on both Robert Williams' and To Walker's parts as their efforts brought six more points to t scoreboard. Williams ran a post pattern across the middle a latched on to a Walker aerial. A super catch by Billy Russel f the two point conversion tightened the throats of Perk fans a tightened the score to 36-29.

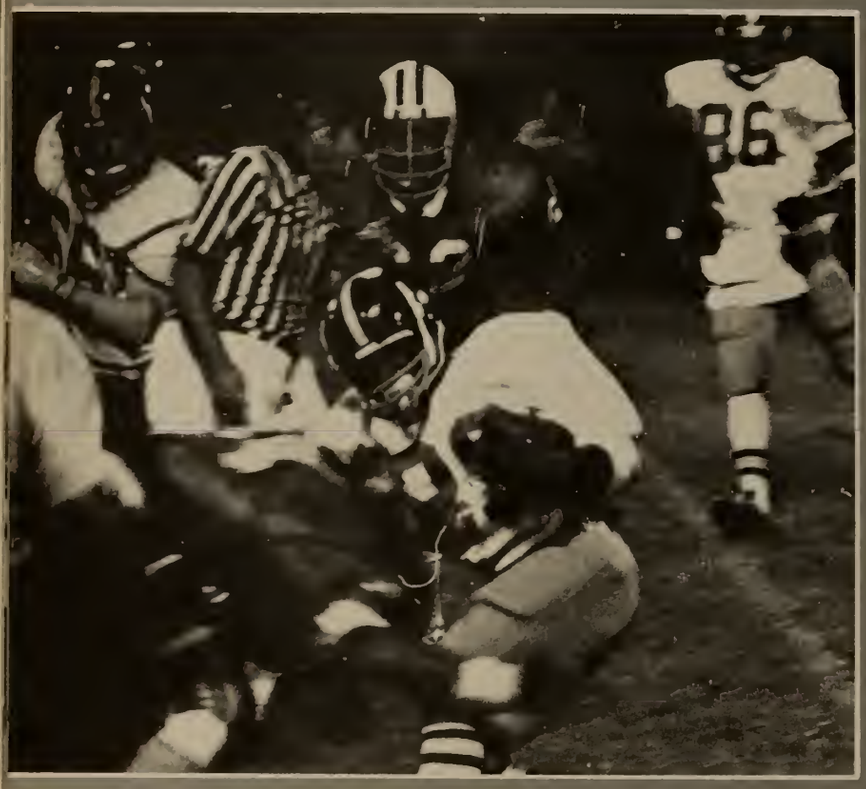
Heart-broken, tired, bruised, but nonetheless proud, the C tried once more to make the dream comeback a reality, but simply was not to be, as Walker was hit hard behind the line a fourth down play with only seconds on the clock.

End of game—PRC-PERK Week ended—Score—36-29.

Homecoming was easy . . .

Bruised, hurt, saddened, but nonetheless proud—Wildcats, bounced back from the heart-breaking loss to Perk and outmanned the Holmes Bulldogs 34-0, to capture their homecoming tilt. Offensively the Cats massed 482 yards to only 108 for Holmes, as the contest was never in doubt. Walker and Magee and Cavataio all scored on short running plays. Magee also connected with Billy Russell for two long fourth period scores. Anderson, Cuevas, Steve Moody, Marvin Davis, and others all played an outstanding defensive game.





Cats letdown at Northeast

PRC's only obvious letdown of the year came against the Northeast Tigers at Booneville. PRC won 14-10 but not before being scared in the last stanza. Cavataio scored early in the first quarter after Donald Hall set up the tally with a returned interception to the five. Emerson Aborom, who came into his own late in the year, weaved his way for a 44 yard score. At the end of the first quarter PRC led 14-0 and it seemed to be another easy night. However a third quarter surge put the Tigers behind only 14-10. Later in the last period NE threatened to go ahead as they were driving deep in Cat territory. Larry Harvey, Anderson, and Nagy came up with the play of the night to stop the Tigers at the PRC six. As the final gun sounded the River was at the Tiger one, but Arban elected to leave the score at 14-10, possibly in salute to a fine Northeast effort.

Southwest was easy

The night at Southwest was an easy one for the Wildcats, as they trounced the Bears 35-15. Robichaux, subbing for injured Cavataio, scored three short touchdowns and Walker and Aborom had their usual good night. PRC led at half 21-9 and they wasted no time in the second half, racking up two more quick scores. Arban sent his second and third stringers in during the last stanza.

Cats drub Hinds 23-7 with class

PRC closed their season by drubbing the Hinds Eagles at Raymond, 23-7. The win left the Cats with a 7-2 ledger and a 4-1 divisional mark. The last victory was a total display of class as the players, Pearls, band and cheerleaders, along with a host of fans, teamed together for one hugh effort. Tim Lewis recovered a fumble in the end-zone for the first score, and Tim Heldt and Emerson Aborom tallied the other two scores. Randy Boyette booted a 32 yard field goal.

The Pearl River boys' basketball team under second year head coach Charles Rea and led by a host of sophomores completed their 1975 season with a 12-8 overall record and a 7-7 Southern Conference mark. The third place finish in the conference was a lot better than recent years, yet the season's outcome had to be disappointing for Coach Rea and the sophomore players. This was to be the year of the Wildcats. Many sports writers and other coaches had picked the Cats to be the team to beat. However, the year turned out to be a series of ups and downs, and hot and cold performances.

When the final copy of the annual was sent in the team was waiting and hoping for a Gulf Coast win over Co-Lin and praying for a lucky flip of the coin. If Gulf Coast beats the Wolves, the Cats and the Wesson crew would wind up the season tied and would have to flip a coin to decide the third place finisher. The 1975-76 squad consisted mostly of sophomore players with some of the best individual talent to grace the campus in a long time. Johnny Woodland, better known as Po-Jay, the hustling Jerry Alford and Hugo Blakeney as well as Rodney Shows all from Hattiesburg will be remembered for years to come. Roger Ladner and Wayne Cuevas of Hancock thrilled the crowds with their ball handling and outside shooting. Nathan Middleton of Picayune will be remembered for his smooth turn around jumpers. Keith Jones and Way Duckworth were the foreigners on the squad. 'Tree' Jones was from Slidell, La. while Duckworth hailed from Macon, Georgia. Neither played a lot of basketball but they did have moments of glory. The regular season is over, we of the 1976 annual staff hope we left out the part about PRC winning the state championship.

Hinds on the road . . .

Pearl River players and a lot of fans will remember the away game at Hinds that finished the season in December 1975. Coach Rea was ejected with somewhat of an unbelievable four technical fouls all in the period of less than a minute. The contest went on, however, Coach Rea had to view the action from the gym's entrance way. Coach Barnes came down out of the stands to take over, and the Cats came close to winning in the late going. These photos are a few of those run in the Drawl as an essay on the ref. Duckworth (41) was given a stuff upper cut to the mouth and dazed for several minutes. The other pixs show Coach Rea standing outside peeking in, while the other gives a memorable fix of this particular ref. This same referee lost his cool moments after the contests and proceeded to make obscene gestures to a member of the PRC faculty.

The PRC girls' team had a very good year, but just like the boys, with a little luck things could have been even better. The overall record was 9-8 for the season but the 9-5 conference mark was the real highlight. Coach Barnes, with the aids of scholarships for the first time in the schools' history blended returning sophomore star Jo Ann Dawsey and floor leader Debbie Farve with a host of talented but inexperienced freshmen. On several occasions the She Cats lost by one or two points and that was in the last few seconds. At press time the girls were in third place and only one game out of first. The regular season was over but tournament chances were promising. No one can write about the girls without mentioning Coach Barnes. He did an outstanding job and was a favorite of the players and press. Dr. Barnes could always smile no matter if he was 20 points behind or two ahead.

Outstanding freshmen included Ard, Guillot, Veseley, Thompson, Barr, and Lyons.

Intramurals . . . Activities For Everyone

Intramurals at Pearl River have improved immensely over the last couple of years. Students can now participate in several different activities on both the male and female levels. Flag football kicks off the fall activities while volleyball, basketball, and softball follow. The old gym is open until 11 p.m. during the week and the student center has several pool tables and foosball machines.

President Marvin White

Pearl River College is lucky to have a man in the presidents chair that is concerned not only with the physical growth of the school, but also with the well being of all its' students. This man at PRC is President Marvin R. White. President White is interested in all facets of the PRC life. From athletics to vo-tech to academic improvements. Mr. White likes to see the 'River' in the number one position. This man at the top, even with all his responsibilities, still finds time to stop and talk to students and anyone interested in Pearl River. PRC under Mr. Whites' leadership has grown by leaps every year. He has also been instrumental in leading the Mississippi Junior College Presidents Association as chairman for the past two years.

Students turn out for cause

Once each semester, a van-load of vampires invades the Pearl River campus. Masquerading as the American Red Cross, they drain the life-blood of the students, leaving many of them too weak to study. The blood drive is always sponsored by the school newspaper, the Dixie Drawl.

The gathering of the tribe, fall registration. We come as strangers, most of us. We are nervous, shy, just out of high school or not, no matter what our age, new experiences await us. Before too many days have passed, however, new friendships will have been formed, and a feeling of belonging will become a part of the rest of our lives. We are the River.

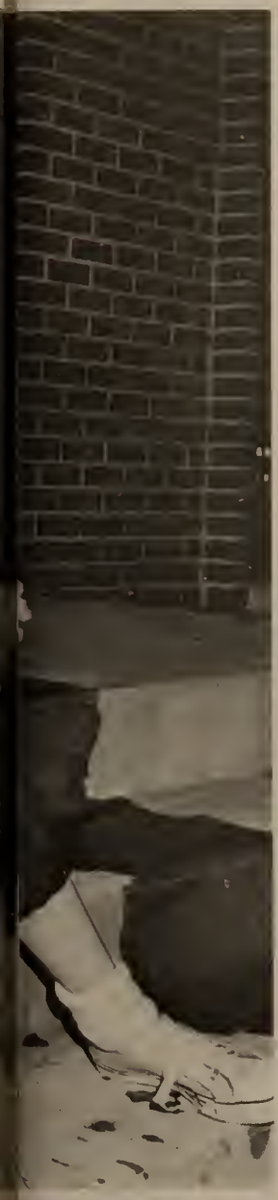
Perk Week



Perk Week is a River tradition, the equivalent of Mardi Gras, when all the rules go out the window, and madness is the order of the day. It helps if you have gills.

A barbecue was held in Dobie Holden Stadium, as the first opportunity for everyone to get acquainted. The weather was threatening, but the food—and the company—was good.

The day before Halloween was another opportunity for the students to release a few of their inhibitions. Called "sock day," it was enough to make "Crazy Legs" Hersch envious.

That first week . . .

The first assembly was for many of us our first contact with President White. It was not encouraging. In a tone of voice reminiscent of Hitler's cordial invitation to Czechoslovakia to surrender, he "cordially invited" us to attend the get-acquainted barbecue. It wasn't too long, however, before we discovered our mistake. Marvin R. White is an intregal and important part of the school, and his concern for the students permeates PRC down to the lowest level. He is the River more than any other single individual.

ARL RIVER JUNIOR COLLEGE • POPLARVILLE, MISS.

Science . . .

Education in the sciences is becoming increasingly important as we try to cope with a technological society, and the River's science department has grown with the need. The River is responsive to the times in which we live.

The River

The River is not a mere collection of buildings. It is people. They are the strength—and the weakness—of the college. Their attitudes, opinions, and dreams determine the course that the River will follow into the future. As our predecessors did, we prepare the way for those who are to come.

Pep Rally–Go Cats

The students at Pearl River traditionally give the athletic program their whole-hearted support.

Another River tradition is the Homecoming parade through the streets of Poplarville. This year, it was bigger and better than ever before, with not only the students at the college getting into the act, but the local high school and elementary school, too.

The intrepid staff of the award-winning school newspaper, the Dixie Drawl, journeys each semester to participate in the bi-annual conferences of the Mississippi Junior College Press Association. The fall conference for 1975 was held in Jackson, and after the regular business of the meeting was finished, everybody went on a tour of the old Capitol Building.

An integral and important part of the Pearl River program is the constantly expanding area of vocational training . . . . . .

1975 saw record enrollments in the Vo-Tech Centers in Hattiesburg and in Hancock County, as well as at the Parent Center on the Poplarville campus.

The End

. . . . and as the sun sinks slowly into the west, we bid a fond farewell to this tropical island paradise? ? ? (Hey, Joe! are you sure

[illegible] a short school year. Every time I turned around I found myself face to face with another deadline. Now that I look back, those long, long weekends of nothing but annual work seem a hundred years ago.

The Wildcat staff of thirteen eager, ready-to-work members dwindled swiftly down to two, Cherita Smith and me. And if you think it's easy for three people to put together an annual, you're wrong. It was, however, rewarding and satisfying work for us.

A few days before our 206 page masterpiece was complete, we were informed that we would exceed our budget. We had to cut 32 pages from our previous 206. This was done with much pain and regret.

The 1975-76 Wildcat staff wishes to express sincere thanks and gratitude to Mr. Larry L. Stanford, Director of Public Relations at PRC and this year's Wildcat advisor. Also thanks to Huey Kenmar, for printing; Suzanne Vogel, for printing and photography; and Charles Alexander for copy.

We all hope you remember and cherish this year's Wildcat as much as we do. Someday, when it has been a long time since you last walked the campus of Pearl River Junior College, you might again flip through the pages of the Wildcat and memories will flow swiftly back like the waters of the River. We will have fulfilled our purpose.
